INDEX OF LANDS.

Instructions for writing up the Index of lands (B. R. Form No. VI).

1. As this Register takes the place of Khetwar (V. F. No. 1) in the future Village Accounts, it should be maintained for the 20 years of the settlement period.
2. An abstract (Goshware) should be given at the end of the Register (as in Khetwar) and must be written afresh every year in which there is any change in the extent and assessment under various heads.
3. Sufficient space should be left between entries to enter Mutations taking place subsequent to the writing up of this Register; not more than two entries being made on each page.
4. The Register should be prepared in duplicate—one copy to be retained in the Taluk Office and the other by the Shambhog.
5. Comm. No. 21 (remarks) should be made use of for noting Sharas that are now being made in the Khetwar, which do not come under any of the prescribed headings, such as—
 - (i) Trees, wells and buildings standing on the survey number or Hissa;
 - (ii) Public rights and easements, such as rights of way, rights of water and the like;
 - (iii) Reservation of lands for any special purpose, such as Military Camping Ground, Date Groves, Burial Ground, etc.
